Bishop Weeps During Consecration.

Overcome by Impressive and Solemn Ceremony — Baltimore.

Audible Prayers from Audience Adds to Affecting Scene.

Hearty Reception Tendered Los Angeles Man After Services.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.] BALTIMORE (Md.) May 31.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Bishop Robert McIntyre of Los Angeles, Cal., was consecrated today before the members of the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and in the presence of about 3,000 other Methodists, by Bishop William Burt of Zürich, Switzerland, and Bishop Luther Wilson of Philadelphia.

During the solemn and impressive service of the consecration, while the new consecrator, Bishop Henry W. Warren of Colorado, was declaring a bishop of the church and called God to look after the needs of the denomination, Bishop McIntyre, who was kneeling at the altar, broke down and wept.

With his hand clasped by one of his presenters, Rev. Christie Galenor of Champaign, Ill., he laid his head on the shoulder of his other presenter, Rev. Dr. Alvah W. Aspinwall of Los Angeles, and when Bishop Burt, Bishop Wilson and the two presenters laid hands on him for the actual ordination, he prayed out loud for Divine guidance.

During the consecration of Bishop McIntyre and Bishop Bristol, the ceremony so affected the members of the conference that more than a hundred of them prayed audibly for them. Bishop Smith and Bishop Anderson were also greatly affected and wept copiously.

Bishop McIntyre was tendered a reception at the close of the consecration by the members of the California delegation and thousands of ministers and laymen from all sections of the country called on him and paid their respects. He has been assigned to an Episcopal residence at St. Paul, Minn., but he will not move his family from Los Angeles for several weeks.

FATAL FALL.
DROPS FROM SKY TO DEATH.

BALLOONIST, ENTANGLLED IN BIG FLAG IS DROWNED.

Fatal Parachute Jump from Height of Two Thousand Feet by Youthful Aeronaut Who Lands in River in Presence of Large Crowd of Mery-makers at Passaic, N. J.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.] NEW YORK, May 31.—Entangled in the folds of a large American flag, which he had waved when he made a parachute drop of 2,000 feet from a balloon at Hillside Park, near Passaic, N. J., late today, Frederick L. Wood, 18 years old, an aeronaut of New Haven, Conn., fell helpless in the Passaic River and was drowned.

Up to a late hour tonight the body had not been recovered.

Wood made his ascension at 5 o'clock this afternoon in the presence of 1,000 persons. As the balloon rose, Wood unfurled an American flag which he waved to the people below.

Near Nutley, the balloon had risen to a height estimated at 2,000 feet, and Wood decided to descend. Cutting loose the rope that held the parachute to the balloon, clutching the rope of his horizontal bar, Wood plunged downwards. Slowly the parachute opened and then with moderate speed continued the descent.

Nearing the earth, Wood saw that he probably would fall in the Passaic River, and waving his flag, he prepared for a plunge into the water. It was at this moment, while the parachute was only 10 feet above the river, that a puff of air caught the floating flag and wrapped it around Wood's legs.

The aeronaut struggled to free himself from its enveloping folds, but failed and with his limbs all bound by the flag, Wood plunged into the river. He arose to the surface and cried for help, but before the spectators could come to his aid, Wood sank and was drowned.

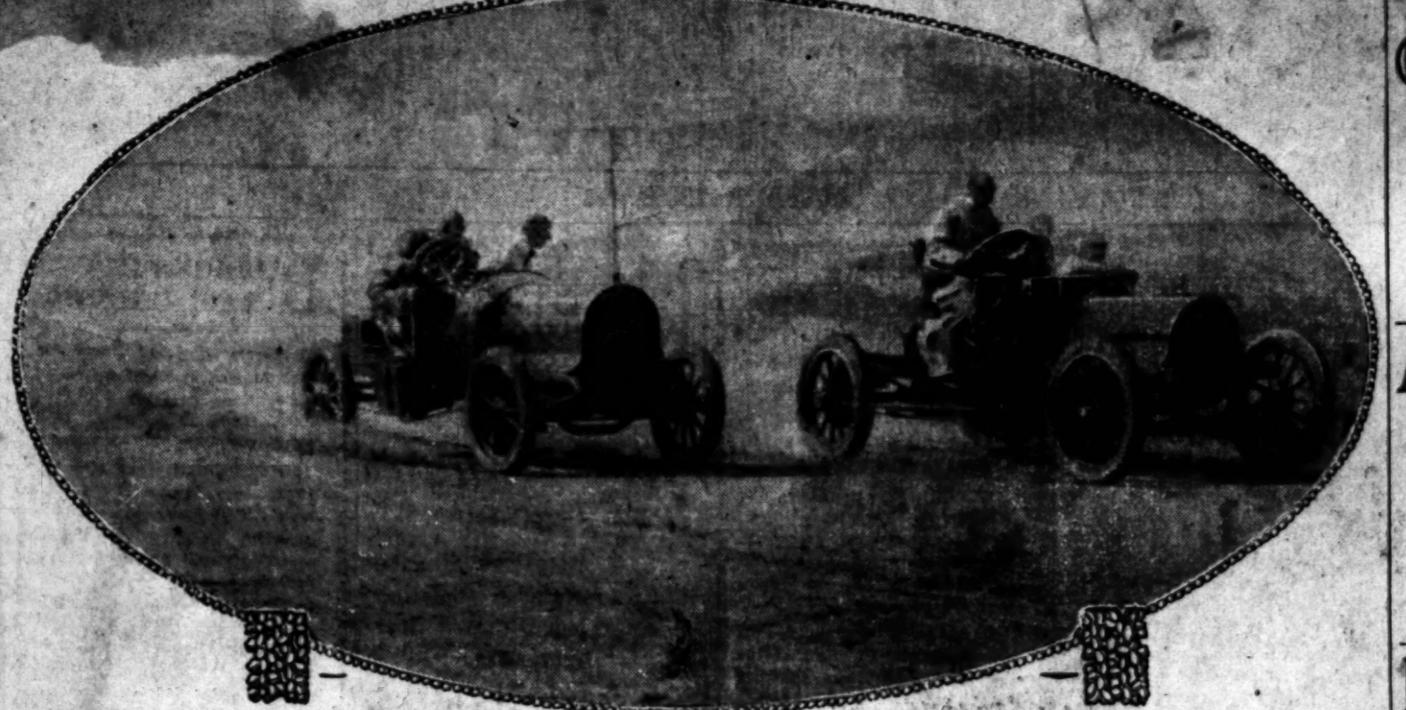

GET PICTURE OF MURDERER.

Authorities at Alton, Ill., Photograph Retina of Dead Woman and Get Clue to Slayer.

BY EXCERPT WIRE TO THE TIMES : ST. LOUIS, May 31.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The picture of a bearded, crooked-nosed man on the eyeball of an unidentified murdered woman whose body was taken from the Mississippi River near Hartford, Ill., may be the clue to the mystery.

The unknown died from a broken neck. This was shown at the autopsy yesterday held in Alton by Dr. Yerkes and Coroner Streater. The absence of water in the woman's lungs proved that she was thrown in the river after she was murdered.

The theory that the dying gaze of a murdered person will fix a picture permanently on the eye caused the authorities to adopt this in the absence of any other clue, in an effort to learn the identity of the murderer. A photograph of the dead woman's retina was made, though she had been in the water almost six weeks.

An Exciting Stage in Yesterday's Great Race.

Ralph Hamlin, the winner, leading with his six-cylinder Franklin, and Frank Siefert on a tourist, running almost neck-and-neck in the contest for honors in the hundred-mile contest.

BIG AUTO WRECKED.

turned over and landed bottom up in the middle of the track. Great holes were dug in the track by the front wheels, where they had run through the tires, and fragments of the fence were thrown all over the entire scene. The car was demolished, one wheel, the steering gear and the seat being torn to kindling wood.

IMMENSE CROWD.

The race had attracted a crowd of 2,000 people. It was an exciting contest, and despite the long grind, the grand stand displayed interest at every moment. It taught anything, it was that tires are the bane of the motorist. The Stearns used seven cars, the Stoddard-Dayton eight, and other cars in proportion.

Ralph Hamlin drove a heady race, and did not push his car so fast that it burned up tires. He changed two only, and saved time over other cars which were driven so fast that their tires did not last.

Although, as his last lap showed, he could have gone faster, he resisted temptation and consequently won. That his course was right was proved by the fact that the first and third places went to cars which were driven consistently, but slower than the majority. The time, 2h. 2m. 26s. 5s., is 2 minutes and 16 seconds slower than the record, but very fast for the track.

The first event of the day was a series of time trials, at one mile, for the Master cars, and a conformer disappeared—Ralph Hamlin in his six-cylinder Franklin, Siefert in a Stoddard-Dayton, and Dan Kuhl in the Stearns. Hamlin made the first attempt, and scored a mile in 1:02.4, with a flying start. Siefert came next, and turned off a mile in 1:02.4. Dan Kuhl made the distance in 1:03, and the cup was awarded to the Stoddard-Dayton.

CENTURY RACE STARTED.

Every car on the entry list was driven to the tape when the starter announced the first century race over run on the Pacific Coast. There were a Stearns, Ford, roadster, Pullman, Cadillac, Durocar, Stoddard-Dayton, six-cylinder, two tourists, and two Haynes cars.

Ralph Hamlin drove the pole, and he got away in the lead, followed by Kuhl in the Stearns. Siefert was in the second line, but he pulled the Stoddard-Dayton through the crush to third place, and was forced to stop, and was forced to stop again for some time. The Cadillac was now in second place, but the Stearns got a new set of tires on and reached the pole from the Cadillac before the sixteenth mile. The Pullman, running very regularly, was in fourth place.

The Stearns, which had run in 15:49, and the time for seventy miles was 21:29. Just before the seventeenth mile the Stearns was forced to stop again on account of tire trouble, and the Stearns got a new set of tires on and reached the pole from the Cadillac before the sixteenth mile. Ellen Beach Yaw.

famous Southern California cantatress, who will go to Europe this summer to replace Selma Kurz in the Royal Opera of Vienna.

ELLEN BEACH YAW-GOLDTHWAITE is going to the Royal Opera of Vienna to take the place of the famous Selma Kurz, the prima donna who comes to the Metropolitan next year, and who has been the object of New York's quest for the past two seasons.

Miss Yaw will leave for the East about June 16, filling several concert dates on the way, and plans to arrive in Vienna in ample time to acquaint herself with the city, the people and her theater quite fully before the opening in the autumn.

She has a three-year contract. "But don't believe," said she laughingly, yesterday afternoon, "that such a contract is going to keep me away from Southern California all that time. Right now I am."

Miss Yaw's reception in New York was thoroughly delightful, and her triumph was complete.

Heinrich Conried, whose ill-health prevented him from attending most of the performances given in New York, was there to see her. "I have not seen her good-by," he said. "You have been heard, and my family, and my friends, tell me you triumphed. Now you can stay here, if you like. The contract for next season is yours."

But Miss Yaw had already made her plans, and accordingly will do her operatic work for the next few seasons on the Continent.

"Opera in New York, at far as the Metropolitan is concerned," said she, "is now entirely problematical. The one tenor whose art seems enduring is Mr. Bonci. His manner of singing is perfection itself, and his style has the convincing elements of intelligence and voice beauty."

"I have never heard such a change as that which has come over Mr. Caruso. At one time I am sure he had the greatest voice in the world. His delivery is perfect, the placement of

AND SOLEMN SERVICE.

Vacant Chairs Decorated With
Floral Emblems—Eloquent Eulogies
Pronounced and Appropriate Musical Programme Given—Lofty Principles of Order Set Forth.

Local Odd Fellows joined in an impressive annual service at their hall yesterday afternoon. Eulogies of the members who had passed away during the year were given by representatives of different lodges and a memorial address was delivered by Rev. Will A. Knighten.

Every seat in the hall was taken long before the exercises began and many of the members stood at the rear of the auditorium. In front of the platform were a number of chairs decorated with floral emblems and the little stage was draped with American flags and bunting.

He made a few introductory remarks. He stated that it was eminently fitting that the members should gather once a year for a memorial service and he paid a glowing tribute to the work accomplished by the order during the past year.

Mr. J. H. Denham gave an instrumental selection, which was followed by the "Opening Ode," by the audience.

Rev. Willis S. Myers, the chaplain, offered an invocation and Eban Baldwin, Jr., sang the "Shepherd King."

After a number of tributes to departed brothers, Roland H. Tomkins passed "The Way of Peace," there was another instrumental selection by Mrs. Denham and a beautiful violin and piano number by the Misses Anita Vennin and Vera Lathrop.

S. H. Mitchell, grand captain of the Minutemen, who was called upon for a brief talk and spoke of the principles on which Odd Fellowship is founded and pointed out some of the ways in which the order could be of service to mankind.

Rev. Mr. Knighten said that he had long been associated with the order and that it had been his privilege on many occasions to take part in exercises conducted by the great fraternity. He explained that the order stood for the fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man. It was in a sense an adjunct of Christianity, for it inculcated principles that were enunciated by Jesus Christ. "These principles are now so well known that the splendid organization will last as long as the earth endures."

The minister, in referring to departed brothers, said that, although they had passed beyond the veil, their lives would be of constant value to those left behind. He pointed to the portraits of some of the prominent members of the order, which hung upon the wall, and stated that the influence of those men remained, although they had gone to another world.

The exercises closed with the singing of a fraternal hymn, followed by the benediction.

RANGERS ANSWER
THE FIRST CALL.SIXTY-FIVE REPORT FOR DUTY AND TAKE TRAIL.

Hard Ride Ends at Schuetzen Park, Where Barbecue is Enjoyed. Major Addresses Troopers, Telling Them They Must Attain to Utmost Proficiency.

Sixty-five men, fully equipped and uniformed, answered the first call sent out by Maj. Fred C. Shurtliff of the Southern California Rangers, yesterday.

From all sections of the county the riders came, bringing their Winchester with them, and prepared for any service. When the command was organized, two months ago, the major notified his troopers that they would have to be ready to respond to a call at any moment.

Yesterday when the Rangers received notices to assemble at Seventh and Broadway yesterday morning, they did not know whether they were to be on the road a day, or a week, and they came prepared for any emergency.

The riders were given the regulation uniform of the squadron—a corduroy suit, with high-topped black boots and campaign hats. Every man carried a rifle, a revolver and a blanket.

At 9 o'clock the start for the hills was made. The riders followed the road to the Vaquero Club's grounds. There a rest was ordered, and several squads, halted at various posts in the vicinity, were ordered to join the main body.

In his address to the men, Maj. Shurtliff said:

"It is the plan of this organization to make scouts of you all. When the squadron was formed there was considerable talk of a war with Japan. We organized at that time particularly to guard the south coast in case of trouble with the yellow men."

"We are ready to serve the United States any day, and we can best serve by taking care of California. We know the hills and the country about here. Our engineer has mapped out every foot of the land in Southern California, and all the hill country extending forty miles back. In case of war we will be able to serve as guides and scouts for an army, keep it in the protection of the hills, and take it to any spot desired along the coast."

"Stories of the work will be heard. It will be up to the men to map out every water hole, every patch of brush and every spot of bare country. The maps now being made are excellent, but the men will have to work to get all the details down to us."

"The major stated that the command would be called out for practice trips twice a month, and that the troopers would give their men special instructions at other times."

The ride was then continued, the men trudging through the hills, through dusty roads and over bad ground, answering the call of the bugle to gallop, or charge and going through cavalry maneuvers.

PARISH IS CHAIRMAN.

Emergency Commission Holds First Meeting.

Investigation to Be Made.

dict Work Will Continue Four Years.

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P.M.] WASHINGTON, May 31.—The commission appointed yesterday Vice-President Fairbanks and Senator Cannon, under the terms of the Steinheil bill, held its first meeting today. The meeting was only for the outlining of plans, and it can be assumed that it will be followed by a thorough investigation and complete revision of currency and banking as it never before received.

The commission, organized by elector Aldrich as chairman and Senator Vreeland as vice-chairman, was to receive the benefit of the services of the commission, the country giving the benefit of such a thorough investigation and complete revision of currency and banking as it never before received.

The Revolver and Rifle Club held its try-out shoot for the team to shoot against Providence, Rhode Island, June 14, on its Bishop-street range Sunday, but there was nothing to it but A. B. Douglas. While some of the other members made scores which would have passed as excellent ordinarily, they were eclipsed by the wonderful run made by Art Douglas.

This crack revolver artist scored two runs of 88 each to show what he could do when he was not shooting, and then getting down to more than two thousand skilled marksman, he was idle for some time. In the following it will start a wave of dynamite over the entire South, putting a large amount of money into immediate circulation, and stimulating all sorts of business.

RAILROAD FINDS GOLD MINER.

Rich Ore Discovered by Miss Tammie for St. Paul Line in Idaho.

BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.—TACOMA, May 31.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul is having extraordinary luck in discovering big bodies of valuable gold and copper ores in its long tunnels in Idaho.

Big finds have been made recently, one a five-foot ledge of silver-lead ore in a long tunnel by which the road passes. The Elko and Shoshone Mine, another, was made about 150 miles east of Spokane in the Saltese district, where copper ore in paying quantities has been found.

It has become the custom of the company's contractors to locate the mine, and the ground to be tunneled through before work is begun. These claims are taken up in the name of the railroad company's mining department.

Unconscious of the uniform he had evoked, Max Barclay descended the stairs, passed through the jing shop—crowded as they always were in the afternoon—into the adjoining building, and soon reached the office of the titular head of the great firm.

After waiting for some time in an outer office he was shown in. The moment he asked this question Mr. Cunningham grasped the situation.

BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.—PITTSBURGH, May 31.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Grand Trunk Railroad is considering the taking over of the Wabash-Pittsburgh Terminal Railroad, which was placed in the hands of a receiver Friday with liabilities of about $75,000,000.

Officials of the Grand Trunk have made a thorough inspection in a special fund, by order of George Gould, who is managing the Grand Trunk will not touch the road unless access can be gained to the seaboard.

Business men say Gould's inability to break through to the sea coast will be the chief obstacle to the release of Joseph Ramsey from the presidency of the Wabash.

There was a wait of a few moments, then Mr. Cunningham turned and said:

"The young lady left your service?"

"Yes, but I may surely know the reason she has left your service?"

"She was asked, but refused to give me her address," said Mr. Cunningham.

"She has left, and I am better off without her," said Mr. Cunningham.

At the Churches Yesterday.

ing Women in Pulpit.

FAIRLY does woman assume the offices of pulpit discourses and services yet such was the case in Epiphany Baptist Church when took entire charge of the services and delivered an excellent sermon prepared by her father, Edward H. Brooks, the pastor, was unable to be present owing to serious illness. Rev. Brooks, who labored faithfully during the past in the interests of the mission, started his services off with a sermon intended to completely give the audience an account of overwork. The ministers have supplied for his other goes it in the course of his time in the pulpit, and the pastor's efforts have been successful in getting him only three to five services a week, and his intention of taking a vacation. The little building was crowded yesterday as Miss Brooks entered the pulpit, and the services were conducted with much warmth and enthusiasm.

The address was "The Sacrifice," based on Rev. xii. 8: "all that dwelt upon the earth saw that the man of God was indeed a righteous man, and that he had no equal in the land." The words were written in the book of life of the world from the foundation of the world. Miss Brooks read part as

NEWS REPORTS FROM CORRESPONDENTS OF THE TIMES.

DREADFUL END. DIES IN AGONY FROM BURNS.

PASADENA WOMAN COAXES FIRE WITH COAL OIL.

Clothes Catch Fire When Fuel Explodes—Knights Templars Celebrate Ascension Day With Notable Church Services and Spectacular Parade—Motorcyclist Injured.

Office of The Times, No. 35 N. Raymond Ave.—PASADENA, June 31.—Mrs. Margaret Whelan died late night before last, of burns received from an explosion of coal oil, while she was lighting a fire in the home of her brother-in-law, J. E. Wilson, No. 223 South Holliston avenue.

Early Saturday morning, Mrs. Whelan went to the kitchen to prepare breakfast. When next seen she came running through the screen porch and her cries attracted the attention of Mr. Wilson, who was working in the back yard. Her clothes were in flames and the pain drove her insane. Mr. Wilson grabbed her, and after rolling her on the lawn, turned her face on her mother, where the fire still smoldered. A physician was called and Mrs. Whelan was removed to the Pasadena Hospital. The shock, combined with the burns, which covered nearly all of her body, proved too great.

Decades was 49 years of age and had been here nearly twenty years. Her husband, P. Whelan, is on his way from Bodie, where he was working when he received news of his wife's death. Frederick J. Whelan, a son, lives here.

ASCENSION DAY CELEBRATED.

Over 800 Knights Templars of commandery of the leading lodges of Southern California gathered here yesterday afternoon to commemorate Ascension Sunday. The services were held in the Presbyterian Church, Rev. Malcolm J. McLeod preaching the memorial sermon.

The parade to and from the church was one of the most spectacular features seen in Pasadena for some time. Over 300 men were in line and marched to the music of three bands.

Rev. Dr. McLeod spoke to the Masses as men who were outsiders of a higher structure than a mere temple or cathedral.

"The principle mission of the Roman knights was to protect the temples of Rome," said he. "There is a greater duty for the chivalry of today. The great cities, with all their corruption and strife, offer little scope for the activities of us all. Let the pure stream of your high idealism purify the river of life that flows through the great cities; that they may become full of love and joy and freedom from poverty, disease and corruption. That should be the aim of your higher idealism, the conception of which would be one of the greatest powers of the times."

At the ritual services, which opened the exercises of the day, the mass was expertly planned. The general public was admitted and filled the church.

Commander W. B. Edwards of the Pasadena Order was in charge of the arrangements, while Capt. E. D. Tyle looked after the parade. Gen. Robert Woodward, commander of the men of Los Angeles No. 5, while Capt. W. W. Waidner headed the Golden West Commandery. L. S. Porter of Pasadena acted as Excellent Preceptor for the day. Charles Logan and Judge James of Los Angeles, assisting.

Grand Commander W. R. Stephens, of Los Angeles, and Grand Captain Gen. A. A. Caldwell, of Riverside, were the State officers present.

MOTORCYCLIST INJURED. Edgar Apperson, aged 13 years, collided with a Pacific Electric Railway car at the barns yesterday afternoon. He sustained numerous bruises and a dislocated wrist. His machine was badly broken. Apperson lives at No. 500 Winona avenue.

REPORT ON PARK PROJECT.

It is expected that City Attorney J. Ferry Wood will be ready to report on the legal steps necessary to a bond issue of $1,000,000 for the reconstruction of the park when the Council meets tomorrow morning. Yesterday he said he would bring the question up, but was not ready to give out his opinion.

The bonds to a portion of the park are in the hands of the city, but the land will be improved by the bond issue is owned by the Tournament of Roses' Association and the title has not been secured. It is a question if the city can spend money to clear from debt the new accession to the park, or improve the park, which technically does not belong to it.

The directors of the Tournament of Roses' Association declare that if the park is not improved this summer and some accommodation made for the public, they will resign and let others should the responsibility for the flower show. As this would mean that the rose fete would be abandoned for a year at least and give other towns a chance to take up the New Year's Day carnival, they are desirous of seeing the park improved.

A new grand stand is needed badly. Many people were admitted to the park at the last festival for whom no place was provided where they could view the races. Many were in poor condition, in danger of being run into by the chariots, and that no accident occurred was remarkable. The directors declare that to give the show under similar conditions would be disastrous to the tournament, that the park is not improved.

The city is being able to call an election to vote $6,000 bonds for the necessary improvement was brought before the Council some time ago, and was endorsed by that body, who left it to the City Council to act on it. Attorney Wood has been trying to do this, and it is believed he will point one out in his report Tuesday.

PASADENA NEWS NOTES.

The Pasadena baseball nine defeated the team from the cruiser Washington by a score of 5 to 4 yesterday afternoon at Raymond grounds. Frier pitched for the locals, and a good-sized crowd saw the game.

E. W. Wainwright Inspector of Masonry of the State, will speak before the Pasadena Lodge in Masonic Temple this evening. His subject will be "Masonry."

Rev. James W. Webb of Rialto presented the Lake Avenue Congregational Church yesterday. He did not come as a candidate for the pulpit, which was recently left vacant by Rev. Steven G. Emerson, who preached yesterday in San Diego, where he has been chosen of the Second Congregational Church.

Record-breaking crowds visited Mount Wilson and Strain's Camp Saturday and Sunday. The opening of Strain's Camp for the first time in five years will be celebrated today.

BRIDGE PARTY.

The important social event of Saturday was the bridge party given by Mrs. J. Dawson Thomas at her home on South Orange Grove avenue.

Tables were arranged for twenty-eight players in the drawing-room and library and here garden roses were used in decoration. In the dining-room, where the collation followed the pink sweet pastries, were many pink baskets of split straw. Mrs. H. H. Trowbridge and Mrs. William Franklin Knight presided over the tea cups.

Cups were awarded as prizes and the winners were Mrs. Clayton H. Garvey and J. S. Glavin. Miss Evelyn Lutz and Cora Auten, those present were Mmes. John W. Higgin, Henry H. Sinclair, E. R. Hull, Clinton Huntington, W. V. Morris, John V. Visech, Eliot, Phillip L. Anten, J. S. Gcock, Gaylord, Arthur Jerome Eddy, W. S. McCay, George H. Barker, Walter Edwards, H. H. Sharp, Clinton Garvey, H. H. Trowbridge, William F. Milledge, Cushing, Palmer, Lutz, Pauline Lutz, Sinclair, Auten and others.

At an informal luncheon given Saturday by Mrs. Henry Mauris Robinson for her mother, Mrs. Stone, at the home of the former on South Grand Avenue, Mrs. Marvin announced the engagement of her son, Will Merwin, and Miss Priscilla McDougall, one of the attractive young women who has recently come to Pasadena to live.

MYSTERY DEEPENS.

Finding of Missing Greek's Boat With Painter Inside Adds to Puzzles of Avalon Tragedy.

AVALON, May 31.—A description of the rowboat found by the tug "Toney the Greek" thirteen miles off Avalon, answers to the boat taken by "Toney the Greek."

The message states that the painter was intact. This causes comment, as the theory was that the boat had been broken loose from the launch boat.

The fact adds greater mystery to the disappearance of the Greek.

WILMINGTON.

WILMINGTON, May 31.—The hearing of the case of John Thomas, one of Wilmington's saloon-keepers, who was charged with violating the city ordinance, resulted in a return of the charges of his license after July 1, by the City Council. Thomas had as his attorney, City Attorney Stigts of San Pedro.

The charges were preferred by F. Garber, who is a saloon-keeper. The message states that the painter was intact. This causes comment, as the theory was that the boat had been broken loose from the launch boat.

People coming out on the wharf were met, however, by agents and told the facts as they were known.

Mr. H. L. Coffman is spending a few days in the city.

Miss Porter is taking a cottage on Fourth street for the summer.

Misses Mrs. W. S. Vawter, Mr. and Mrs. Moore, Mrs. A. J. Myers and K. E. Summerfield went to Santa Barbara yesterday in an automobile.

TRYING.

FIRE FOLLOWS EXPLOSION.

Blaze at Pomona Caused by Gasoline. Clergyman Wins Three Fortune in the Mines.

POMONA, May 31.—Fire, caused by the explosion of a gasoline stove on the screen porch of a cottage occupied by Mr. and Mrs. O. Miller, completely destroyed the building and contents, damaged the next cottage east so that it will probably have to be wrecked and partly burned a two-story house on the west. All the buildings, which were old, were located on the hill street, between Gibbs and Pomona streets. The first two cottages were owned by Silas Tricky and the other house by Mrs. M. O'Neill. The Millers saved only two chairs, but most of the furniture in the other house was destroyed by the burning building, as the fire was being extinguished by the fire companies.

It has been some time since a blaze of this size has occurred here, and as there was a stiff wind blowing to the east, the fire companies did well to check the spread of the flames.

MAKES THIRD FORTUNE.

News has been received here that Rev. H. W. Knickerbocker, some years ago pastor of the local Unitarian Church, who has since made and lost two fortunes in Nevada mines, is in town continuing his stay in the mining town of Rawhide. His interest in property with Nat G. Goodwin.

POMONA NOTES.

S. N. Curry suffered a severe sprain of his left wrist while "cranking" his automobile yesterday.

G. B. Waters of the Pomona cabiners will commence to have several cases of bladders dried this week.

Large crowd attended a concert given by the Seventh Regiment Band at this afternoon.

Miss Clara Bell Dills of the Los Angeles Public Library is spending a two weeks' vacation at her home here.

SANTA MONICA.

SANTA MONICA, May 31.—The agents are arranging for a two-day bazaar in Topanga Cañon in July. They will be accompanied by their wives. An initiation and a barbecue are among the diversions contemplated.

Oil derricks in the vicinity of Beverly have caused extensive real estate and stimulated building. H. D. Meister, late of Ohio, purchased a lot and will erect a residence. Mrs. H. H. Starr, formerly Mrs. H. H. Starr, has also acquired a lot and will build a $3000 home.

Mr. J. M. Jones of Cleveland, O., who has been visiting here, has returned to his home.

Mr. H. L. Coffman is spending a few days in the city.

Miss Porter is taking a cottage on Fourth street for the summer.

Misses Mrs. W. S. Vawter, Mr. and Mrs. Moore, Mrs. A. J. Myers and K. E. Summerfield went to Santa Barbara yesterday in an automobile.

NO "SOFT SNAP" FOR THIS YOUTHFUL MINISTER.

Walter Runciman, New President of Board of Education, Must Smooth Over Many Ennemis Left by Aggressive Predecessor—Will Try to Make Peace With Clergy.

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.

LONDON, May 31.—Walter Runciman, the new president of the Board of Education, who has just made his appointment good by winning his major members of Parliament.

He is an excellent speaker in the Commons, but his repartee is widely known.

One of his constituents recently attempted to "heckle" him while he was making a speech on a thorny question of disestablishment.

In the new Ministry, the man began.

"Now, sir, at this moment I have a school in my eye—"

Before he could say any more Runciman interrupted with: "No, pardon me; only one pupil."

and the reply so successfully turned the tables on the heckler that he instantly subsided.

Runciman, besides being a shrewd politician, is a sharp business man. He comes of a renowned family of ship owners, the members of which are "big guns" in Newcastle-on-Tyne and that neighborhood. His father and grandfather were owners of the great "Moor" steamship line, and Walter Runciman himself is managing director of the company which now controls the business.

Just how much he is worth is not known, but it is safe to say that he is a very rich millionaire, in dollars, so you can't have to be a millionaire thinking about the comparative meagreness of his official pay as head of the Board of Education.

In the Campbell-Baumerian Ministry, Runciman is the great parliamentary spokesman, the man who has been elected to the House of Commons.

He is a man of great energy and will, and is likely to be highly successful in his new rôle.

He is a man of great energy and will, and is likely to be highly successful in his new rôle.

Runciman, besides being a shrewd politician, is a sharp business man. He comes of a renowned family of ship owners, the members of which are "big guns" in Newcastle-on-Tyne and that neighborhood. His father and grandfather were owners of the great "Moor" steamship line, and Walter Runciman himself is managing director of the company which now controls the business.

Just how much he is worth is not known, but it is safe to say that he is a very rich millionaire, in dollars, so you can't have to be a millionaire thinking about the comparative meagreness of his official pay as head of the Board of Education.

In the Campbell-Baumerian Ministry, Runciman is the great parliamentary spokesman, the man who has been elected to the House of Commons.

EXPULSION OF COUNCILMAN IS CAUSING STIR.

Rumor Has It That Six Members of San Diego's Executive Body Will Be Called Upon to Defend Their Course—Good Roads Convention to Be Called.

SAN DIEGO, May 31.—Councilmen L. A. Crooman, W. H. Palmer, George McNeil, Henry Woolman, P. J. Goldkamp and Max Winter may be cited to appear before Judge Conklin to answer to contempt of court in expelling Charles Kelly from the body. It is said, however, that the court will not make such an order unless the initiative is taken by Kelly and his
